

Registration for the International Housing Support

The Housing Support of the International Office at Hochschule Darmstadt h_da offers special assistance to international students in their search for accommodation. If you are in need of special help, please apply here to receive detailed information and a possible accommodation offer.

Please note: The Housing Support Office at Hochschule Darmstadt h_da do not manage student housing nor own student dormitories, therefore you are not entitled to receive an offer if we don't have any. However the office offers support and counselling during the search.
